The Dot

(Click on link to be taken to the video of the story or look it up online.)

- Watch the story called The Dot, by Peter Reynolds.
- Create a dot in a box.
- Then use your imagination to turn the dot into something.
- Make sure the dot is still clear when your picture is finished.

Which one do you think is your best picture and why?

The Dot

- The dot has changed colour!
- Now what can it be used to create?

Which one do you think is your best picture and why?

The Dot

- This time decide on what colour you would like the dot to be. It could be the same colour for each box or it could be a different colour each time.
- Now what can it be used to create?

Poetry – Hand on the bridge by Michael Rosen

(Click on link to be taken to the video of the story or look it up online.)

- Listen to / Read the poem
- Learn it and perform it
- Create your own verse
- Perform it
- Record it if you can so you can watch your performance back

Hand on the bridge.

Hand on the bridge feel the rhythm of the train,

Hand on the window feel the rhythm of the rain.

Hand on your throat, feel the rhythm of your talk,

Hand on your leg, feel the rhythm of your walk,

Hand on the sea, feel the rhythm of the tide,

Hand on your heart, feel the rhythm inside,

Hand on the rhythm, feel the rhythm of the rhyme,

Hand on your life, feel the rhythm of time,

Hand on your life, feel the rhythm of time,

Hand on your life, feel the rhythm of time.

Poetry – The sound collector by Roger McGough

(Click on link to be taken to the video of the story or look it up online.)

- Listen to / Read the poem
- Learn it and perform it

The sound collector

A stranger called this morning
Dressed all in black and grey
Put every sound into a bag
And carried them away
The whistling of the kettle
The turning of the lock
The purring of the kitten
The ticking of the clock
The popping of the toaster
The crunching of the flakes
When you spread the marmalade
The scraping noise it makes
The hissing of the frying pan
The ticking of the grill
The bubbling of the bathtub
As it starts to fill
The drumming of the raindrops
On the windowpane
When you do the washing-up
The gurgle of the drain
The crying of the baby
The squeaking of the chair
The swishing of the curtain
The creaking of the stair
A stranger called this morning
He didn't leave his name
Left us only silence
Life will never be the same.
